

Step 1 →
HOMEWORK

NONE. Have juror wkst. ready.

Step 2 →

Twelve Angry Men: Act II

A Day: 5/16/16

B Day: 5/17/16

Step 3 →
Start the
Welcome Work

Journal #30: Court Proverb
Read the proverb. How does this apply to the play so far? Do you think it's true of our court system currently?

“Corn can't expect justice from a court composed of chickens.” African proverb

Song of the day:

Grammar Check: ADJECTIVES

Adjectives: Describe nouns

Proof: a ___ book, a ___ person, a ___ idea

(If it makes sense with one of them, it's an adjective.)

(a stinky book, a stinky person, a stinky idea)

Ex. My stinky brother swims well.

- HIGHLIGHT your adjectives.
- Draw an arrow to the noun they describe.

Journal #30: Court Proverb

Lit Circles → Act I questions

Read Act II

- Complete Protagonist/Antagonist Grid

Read Act III

HOMEWORK: A Day

- Due Wednesday, 4/18
  - Quiz Grade: Journals 21-30: ½ page each at least
  - PRI list → Printed/Written on ONE PIECE OF PAPER (Size 12 font—Can use front and back)
    - *Add Twelve Angry Men