

Step 1→ Take out your homework.	Chapters 17-19
Step 2→ Write down today's date and title.	Chapters 20-22 5/16/17
Step 3→ Journal	NO JOURNAL! Take a post-it and write down/describe a specific commercial. List the product and explain what happens in the commercial and how they sell it. Example: https://www.ispot.tv/ad/wAS1/lysol-protect-like-a-mother

Product: Lysol

Mother animals like elephants and lions are used to protect kids, which is meant to show how mothers protect their kids.

BIG FAT REVIEW

● Ethos:

Moral character.

1.) Used when trying to persuade audience that a character is a good person.

● Pathos:

Emotion.

1.) A rhetorical device used to get readers to stop thinking and start feeling.

● Logos:

Reason.

1.) Using clear and concise terms to help readers see logically why they should agree with your point.

Chapter 20

- Mr. Dolphus Raymond
 - Scout
 - Dill
 - Jem
-
- Halfway through 171-174

Atticus's closing speech

Reading Chapter 21

- Scout
- Dill
- Jem
- Atticus
- Mr. Underwood
- Judge Taylor
- Calpurnia
- Rev. Sykes
- Heck Tate

Atticus's speech → Ethos/Pathos/Logos

Work with a partner!

Summary of Chapter 22

Chapter 23

HOMEWORK: A DAY

- DUE Friday, 5/19
 - Read 21-23
 - Reading Log 20-23
 - Google Classroom → Ethos/Pathos/Logos for Atticus (Extra Credit)

HOMEWORK: B DAY

- DUE Thursday, 5/18
 - Read 21-23
 - Reading Log 20-23