

Step 1 →
HOMEWORK

Take out your 10 notecards.

Step 2 →
Notes heading

Write down title & date.

Finishing TLM and reviewing essay.

A Day: 9/24/15

B Day: 9/25/15

Step 3 →
Start the Welcome Work

Write a short summary of The Little Mermaid (so far) using as many of your vocab words as possible.

Song of the day: “When the day met the night” by Panic at the Disco

Essay review: Model Essay

- Doc Cam using “codes”

Things you did well:

- Most used the theme provided, choosing one character
- Most students selected two devices
  - Only some included an adjective before their device. You need to do this!
- Introduction and Conclusion were present (though not always great)
- Evidence ideas were relevant
- Word Choice (WC)= not a lot of the “I think” or “you” —Good!

Things to be improved:

- Read the prompt. Do you understand what is being asked?
- PLAN. Watch me do this on the board.
- EMBED YOUR QUOTES!
  - 8-10 words only, using a parenthetical reference at the end of the sentence.
  - Mix it into your sentence → Don't PLOP
  - Use brackets and/or ellipses to make this happen
- Devices need to be analyzed (lime sheet)
- Devices need to be connected to theme.
  - ALWAYS GO BACK TO YOUR THEME

Essay review

- Read your comments.
  1. What did you think you did well?
  2. What can you improve upon?
  3. What do you think you received, based on the comments and re-reading your essay?
  4. Are you surprised by your grade? Why/why not?
  5. Leave any other comments/feedback.

PASS ESSAYS BACK TO THE FRONT!

Finish reading the story

Theme: Hans Christian Andersen's “The Little Mermaid”

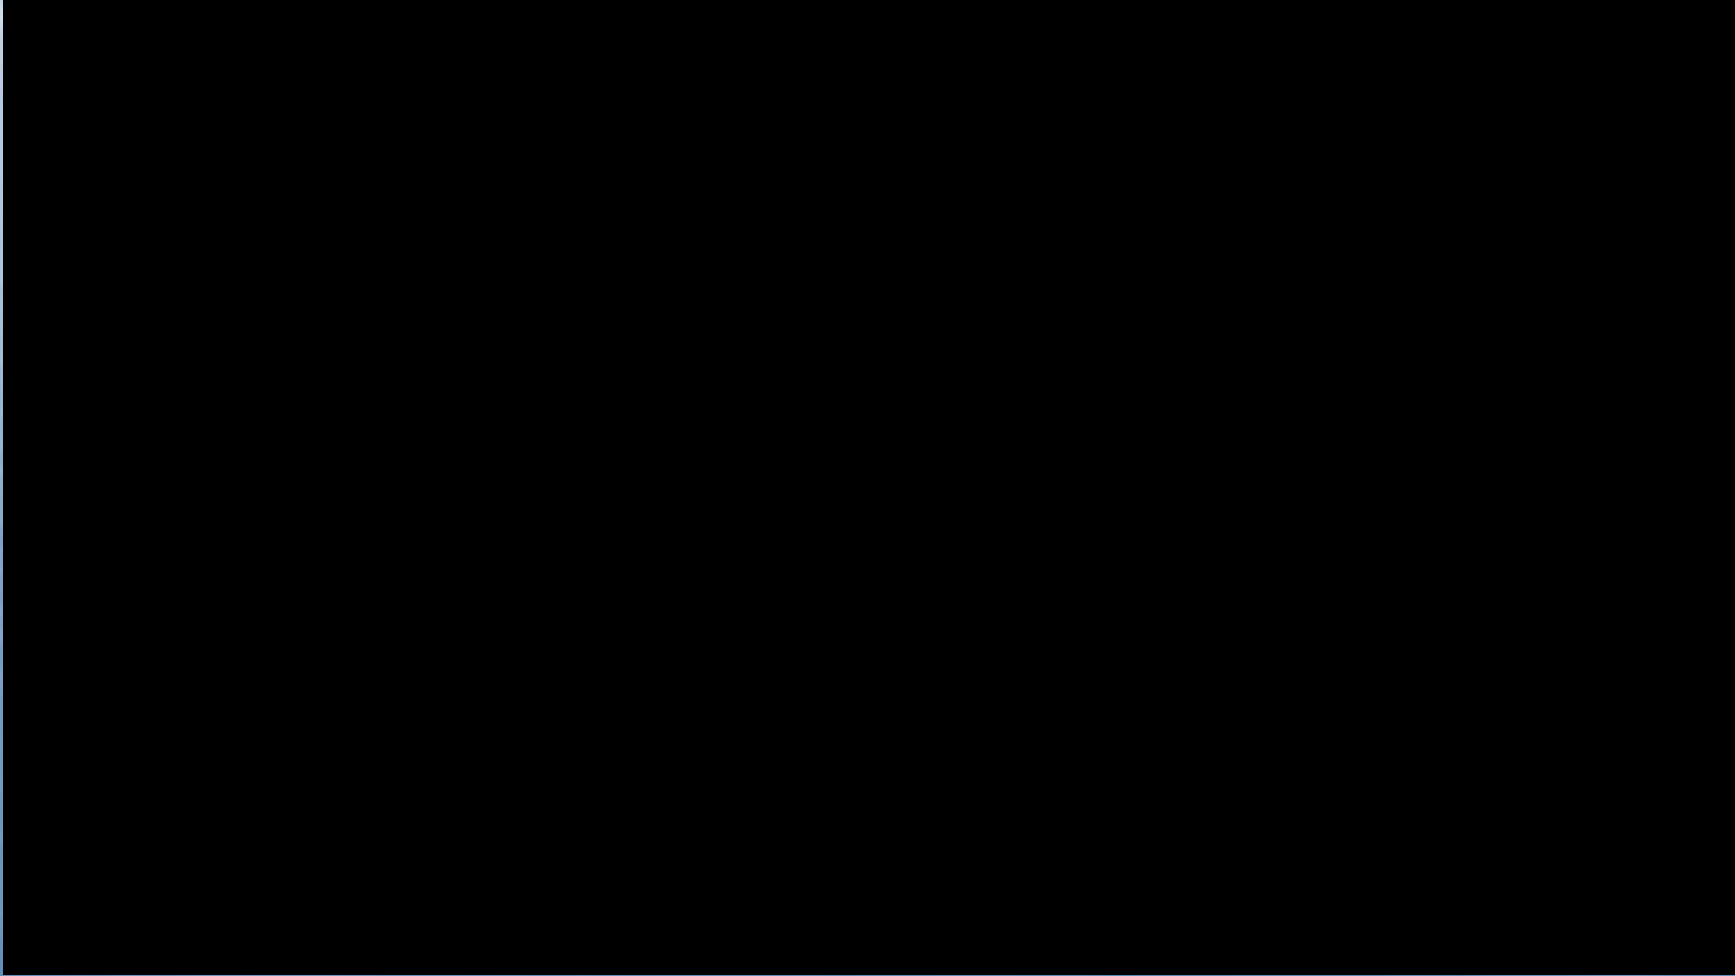

- Group challenge: Theme worksheet

- Do step 1. Get my stamp of approval.
- Move to the next step. Get my stamp of approval.
- Repeat until the end.

Test next lesson

- Apostrophes
  - Fragments/Run-Ons
  - Creating thesis statements
  - Organizing an essay
  - VOCABULARY
-
- Grammar Practice on website!

DISNEY VS. ANDERSEN: THE ENDING

HOMEWORK: A Day

- Due Monday, September 28
  - Study for test!
  - Optional: Buy The Kiterunner

HOMEWORK: B Day

- Due Tuesday, September 28
  - Study for test!
  - Optional: Buy The Kiterunner