Reading Check Quiz:

1. What is the protagonist's name?
2. What is his best friend's name?
3. How did the protagonist's mother die?
4. What is the best friend's first word?
5. True or False: Hazara is the name of the ethnic majority in Afghanistan.

Pet your aunt!

PETULANT

- Def → Unjustifiably impatient; easily annoyed
- P.O.S. → ADJ.
- Clue → Pet your aunt!
- My aunt needed so much attention that my mom would always have to tell me, “Pet your aunt!” She was so petulant if you didn’t do what she wanted.

Psycho-fan

SYCOPHANT

- Def → A flatterer, a suck-up (unpleasant)
- P.O.S. → NOUN
- Clue → “Psycho fan”
- The psycho fan was obsessed with telling the world that Britney was awesome. He was a total sycophant.

Late/Absent Work Policy for Lit Circles

If you are absent, you will be expected to show me both your role from the previous class period and from the class period when you return. If you have any school related business absences (sports, clubs, band, FAA), you are expected to show me the lit circle role before the day of your absence. Your assignment will be subjected to the 30 point late deduction if you do not show me your assignment before your planned absence. Since you are being made aware of the due dates now, absenteeism is not an acceptable excuse for not completing your work on time. The literature circle packet must be submitted in its entirety by the beginning of class on 11/30 (A) & 12/1 (B).

All roles not submitted by the assigned due date will result in a deduction of 30 points.

Discussion Director

Reading Selection:

Date:

Your job is to write down five questions for discussion based on the assigned reading. Your questions must be thoughtful, open-ended (not yes/no questions), and relate specifically to the text and author's strategies (i.e. not "What would you do if..." or "What part did you like?"). You will lead the group meeting, beginning with your questions.

Analytical question examples:

How does _____ reveal the theme?    What do you think the author's intentions were when he _____?    What does _____ reveal about the human condition?

Literary Connector

Reading Selection:

Date:

Your job is to find a connection between your assigned reading in The Kite Runner to Gilgamesh, another character in literature, and art/music/dance. The connections you draw can be through plot events literary devices (like FIDDS), or literary elements (like setting, characterization, etc.).

Connection to Gilgamesh

The Kite Runner : Quotes (Use MLA citation)	Connection to Gilgamesh

Connection to other Literary Character

The Kite Runner : Quotes (Use MLA citation)	Connection to:

Last Step: Submit a link of a piece of art, music, dance, etc. to the Meeting Minutes document prior to your group's meeting.

What do you want to discuss with your group? How does this outside source connect to the novel?

Literary Terms Expert

Reading Selection:

Date:

Your job is to write down one theme from your reading so far. You will then analyze three literary devices from your assigned reading that illustrate this theme. Use the devices from the "How to Connect Devices to Meaning" handout. (Be sure to use MLA format for your citations.) For each device, write a paragraph discussing the example's meaning and how it connects to theme. During the Literature Circles, share these examples with your group and ask them to discuss their meaning before you offer your answers.

Literature Circles Evaluation

---

1 = 50 (if the role is incomplete, the group member automatically receives a 1)

2 = 65 (work is complete, but demonstrates little thoughtfulness)

3 = 75 (work is complete, participation in group meeting might be limited to his or her role)

4 = 85 (work is complete and thoughtful, participation in meeting goes beyond his or her own role)

5 = 100 (he or she not only fully completed the assignment on time, but also actively and thoughtfully contributed in speaking and listening during the entire meeting)

***For each rating, write a one sentence explanation justifying the score.***
